

Store Brand/House Guns, Cross-Reference Table to Manufacturer

Many major retailers like Sears, Wards etc. had their brand name put on the firearms that they sold.

The following list shows the brand name, the original manufacturer & actual factory model closest to it.

Many of these guns were basically the same as the existing manufacturers with different wood, sights etc.

This list is by alphabetical & numerical order of the store brand.

The parts listed in this color are additions to the regular published listings, from personal observation or information from others

Sears Roebuck & Co. had High Standard manufacture many firearms under their JC Higgins name (as Sears owned a good size part of High Standard back then).

This material above compiled from Savage Arms, Jack First & Gun Parts Corp. plus personal observances
